Money

בבא מציעא דף מב

וְאָמֵר רַבִּי יִצְחָק: לְעוֹלֶם יְהֵא כַּסְפּוֹ שֶׁל אָדָם מָצוּי בְּיָדוֹ, שֶׁנֶּאֱמֵר: ״וְצַרְתָּ הַכֶּסֶף בְּיָדְדְּ״. וְאָמֵר רַבִּי יִצְחָק: לְעוֹלֶם יַשְׁלִישׁ אָדָם אֶת מְעוֹתָיו, שְׁלִישׁ בְּקַרְקַע, וּשְׁלִישׁ בִּפְרַקְמֵסְיָא, וּשְׁלִישׁ תַּחַת יָדוֹ.

Rabbi Yitzḥak says: A person's money should always be found in his possession. He should not invest all of his money, leaving him with no money available for expenditures, as it is stated: "And you shall bind up the money in your hand." And Rabbi Yitzḥak says: A person should always divide his money into three; he should bury one-third in the ground, and invest one-third in business [bifrakmatya], and keep one-third in his possession.

קהלת רבה

Money answers everything" – Rabbi Yehoshua of Sikhnin [said] in the name of Rabbi Levi: At times one is "answered and at times one is not answered. משלי ג טז - אָרֶךְ יָמִים בְּימִינָהְ בִּשְּׁמֹאוֹלָהְ עְשֵׁר וְכָבְוֹד:

In her right hand is length of days, In her left, riches and honor.

Bava Batra 25b: 8

Rabbi Yitzḥak says: One who wishes to become wise should face south, and one who wishes to become wealthy should face north...And Rabbi Yehoshua ben Levi says: One should always face south, as once he becomes wise he will subsequently also become wealthy, as it is stated with regard to the Torah: "Length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor" (Proverbs 3: 16).

מדרש תהילים הי:בי

Rabbi Chanina said, "The Torah says (Proverbs 3:16), 'In her left hand, riches and honor, and in her right hand, length of days.' And for the poor!!." And the Holy Spirit responds and says, "To cause those who love me to inherit substance." Why are they poor in this world! So that they should not occupy themselves with frivolous matters and forget the Torah.

אל, חגיגה ט ע"ב	רבנו חננא
-----------------	-----------

The Holy One, blessed be He, courted all manners and did not find a better one for Israel than being poor so that their hearts would be broken and their eyes directed to heaven and their eyes dependent on His mercy and grace. And this is what the people say, "The poverty of Israel is as beautiful as a red bridle to a white horse" which is visible, and it is known before the Holy One, blessed be He, that when they deny him.. Jeshurun grew fat and kicked (דברים לב טו)

דברים רבה ב ל

A lover of money will not be satisfied with money, do they not know that no man fills his soul, what is money? He who loves the words of the Torah...

Another thing, a lover of money, said Rabbi Yitzchak, one who loves mitzvahs...

קהלת ה ט - יי אוהב כַּסֶף לא ישַבַּע כַּסֶףיי

A lover of money never has his fill of money, nor a lover of wealth his fill of income. That too is futile.

בעל שם טוב, יתרו לייז :אי

May the Shabbat keepers and joy seekers, etc. rejoice in your kingdom. They will all be satisfied and take pleasure in your goodness, and it is difficult, isn't it, in the business of this world that pleasure comes before satisfaction, and it would be appropriate to say that they will enjoy and then be satisfied? and the meaning is, there are in the business of this world pleasure without ever being satisfied, and there is satisfaction, but after satisfaction there is no pleasure again, Because in the matter of wealth and great wealth there is pleasure, and everything that is richer has more pleasure, but it has no satisfaction,
